

MAIN ELEMENTS CURRICULAR AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES PERFORMED

Miguel Frاسquillo

Nationality: Portuguese | Date of birth: November 1965

Since June 30, 2017, he is Chairman of the Board of TAP Group.

Professional Activity: Visiting Professor at Católica Lisbon – Business & Economics since June 2017 | Chairman and CEO of AICEP Portugal Global, E.P.E., the Portuguese Trade and Investment Agency from April 2004 to April 2017 | Member of Parliament on behalf of PSD (Social Democratic Party) between April 2003 and April 2014, including Executive Vice-President for the PSD Parliamentary Group regarding Economic, Financial and Fiscal affairs, Vice-Chairman of the Eventual Parliamentary Committee to follow the implementation of the Bailout Programme and Chairman of the Parliamentary Committee of Public Works, Transports and Communications | Member of the Special Committee created in 2013 to reform the Corporate Income Tax in Portugal | Managing Director of Espírito Santo Research, the Research Department of Banco Espírito Santo Group (BES Group) between July 2003 and April 2014 | Secretary of State for Treasury and Finance of the XVth Constitutional Government between April 2002 and April 2003 | Elected Member of Parliament for PSD (Social Democratic Party) by the circle of Setúbal, as head of list, in March 2002 | Chief Economist of BES Group (January 2002 – April 2002) | Senior Manager and Chief Economist of BES (January 1998 – January 2002); Joined Banco Espírito Santo (BES) in September 1996 as Senior Economist | Assistant Professor at Católica Lisbon – School of Business & Economics (September 1990-March 2002), Centro de Investigação de Mercados e Activos Financeiros (CEMAF) of ISCTE Business School (1999-2000) and Nova School of Business & Economics (1988-1990) of Statistics, Econometrics, Mathematics, Macroeconomics, International Economics, Industrial Economics, National Accounts and Analysis of Economic Cycles | Deputy Assistant to the Secretary of State for Trade during the XIIth Constitutional Government (1994-1995) | Economist at the Economic and Social Council (1992-1994) and FISECO – Serviços Financeiros, S.A. (1991-1992).

Other Activities: Co-author of the book “Portugal Agora”, along with 16 other authors, coordinated by Carlos Sezões and published in May 2017 | Author of the book “As Raízes do Mal, a Troika e o Futuro”, published in May 2013 | Co-author of the book “Portugal e o Futuro – Falam duas gerações de economistas” (a tribute to Mr. Ernâni Lopes, a famous Portuguese economist and former Minister of Finance who passed away in December 2010), along with 7 more Portuguese economists; this book was coordinated by Jorge Vasconcellos e Sá and was published in May 2011 | Co-author of the books “4R – Quarta República” and “As Farpas da Quarta”, both compilations of texts from the authors of the blog “Quarta República”, published, respectively, in October 2007 and September 2009 | Author of the paper “O Exemplo da Irlanda”, published in the book “Produtividade e Crescimento em Portugal”, edited in December 2002, along with papers of other 14 Portuguese authors | Co-author of the book “Portugal Europeu?”, with Jorge Vasconcellos e Sá and Watson Wyatt, published in November 2001 | Author of two working papers published in the field of Quantitative Analysis («Teoria do Controlo Ótimo» and «Análise de Decisão Multicritério»).

| Master in Economic Theory from Nova School of Business & Economics (Universidade Nova de Lisboa – Faculdade de Economia, 1997) | Graduated in Economics from Católica Lisbon – Business & Economics (Universidade Católica Portuguesa – Faculdade de Ciências Económicas e Empresariais, 1988) | Certificate of Proficiency in English by the University of Cambridge, Local Examinations Syndicate) | Course of Musical Education by the National Music School, as long as the frequency of the 12th degree in Piano and the 2nd year in History of Music.